Teenager Arrested for Attacking and Robbing Car Driver

Bunja Kassama

Sheriff's detectives say a man who had driven to a friend's house last night in southeast Shelby County was attacked and robbed by a several men. Deputies have one of the suspects in custody.

Bunja Kassama, 18, was arrested by Deputies this afternoon. Investigators believe Kassama and three, possibly four, armed men all wearing red bandannas, robbed Christopher Williams, 32, as he and another man sat in Williams' car at 7:45 p.m. near the intersection of Crystal Oak Drive and Sleepy Oak Cove.

The other man in the car with Williams, Andre Dugger, ran away when the robbers approached. The suspects forced Williams to lie down on the front seat of the car. They took cash, a cell phone and his driver's license. The suspects attempted to take the car but Williams managed to speed away.

Kassama faces several charges:

- Aggravated Robbery
- Theft of Property
- Criminal Attempted Aggravated Robbery
- Criminal Attempted Aggravated Carjacking

Deputies are still looking for the other suspects. Anyone with information about the robbery and attempted carjacking is asked to call the General Investigation Bureau of the Shelby County Sheriff's Office (901) 545-5600 or Crime Stoppers at (901) 528-CASH.
