Deputies Arrest Two for Robbing Rosemark Convenience Store

Timothy Shorty

Vincent Johnson

Sheriff's detectives have arrested two Millington men for robbing a Rosemark convenience store last December.

Vincent Johnson, 18, and Timothy Shorty, 27, were taken into custody yesterday evening. Detectives believe they robbed the F & G Mart at 9508 Millington-Arlington Road just after 8 p.m. on December 26, 2008.

Investigators say Johnson and Shorty attacked both clerks at the store. One man was hit on the face with a pistol and a woman was grabbed and forced to open the cash drawer. The clerks were not seriously hurt. The suspects then escaped with money, a clerk's wallet and lottery tickets.

Sheriff's detectives from the General Investigation Bureau worked with other Deputies from the Sheriff's Patrol Crime Response Unit (P.C.R.U.) to develop leads in the case. P.C.R.U. Deputies work undercover and assist other Sheriff's Office bureaus to target particular crimes in various neighborhoods.

Both Johnson and Shorty have been charged with Aggravated Robbery.
