Sheriff's Office Needs Jailers

The Sheriff's Office needs 40 new Corrections Deputies to work at the Shelby County Jail.

"In the past several months, many Corrections Deputies have retired or started new careers. It is vital we bring on new employees to help ensure the safety and security of inmates at both the men's and women's facilities," said Shelby County Sheriff Mark H. Luttrell, Jr.

The average daily census at the Shelby County Jail is about 2600 inmates, with most being male inmates housed downtown at 201 Poplar Avenue. The other 300 women inmates are housed at Jail East, 6201 Haley Road in east Shelby County.

The Sheriff's Office will be accepting applications for Corrections Deputies until March 6th. The recruit class will start on August 17th. Recruits will go through eight (8) weeks of training at the Sheriff's Office Training Academy, 993 Dovecrest in east Memphis.
