Search Continues For Robbers of South Shelby County Home

Sheriff's Deputies are looking for three men who attacked and robbed a man at his south Shelby County home last night. Just before 7 o'clock, Roy Phillips, 62, was sitting on the tailgate of his pickup truck inside the garage of his home in the 5200 block of Rolling Ridge Cove.

Three suspects, one armed with a pistol, approached him and then forced him inside his house. Phillips said the men bound his hands and ankles and then hit him in the face. He was not seriously injured.

The suspects ransacked the house and took cash and some guns. On their way out, they stole Phillips' other vehicle, a red Chevy Equinox. Deputies found it an hour later at the Emerald Park Apartments at Hickory Hill and Knight Arnold. Some of the guns were still inside.

Sheriff's detectives don't know the age of the attackers but two wore black shirts. One of those suspects had short dread locks. The third suspect was wearing a white T shirt.

Anyone with information about the robbery is asked to call the Sheriff's Office at (901) 379-7625.
