Cordova Man Robbed During Home Invasion

Sheriff's Deputies continue their search for three men who attacked and robbed a man at his Cordova home last night.

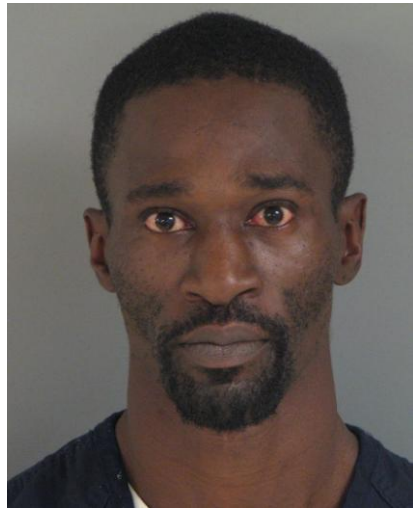

Ali Jaffri, 57, told Sheriff's detectives three men entered his home through an unlocked backdoor just after 9 o'clock.

Jaffri said the intruders hit him with their fists, blindfolded him and then ransacked his home at 7202 Grapetree Trail.

The suspects then tied Jaffri to a chair and took his debit card and some other items. About 2 a.m., Jaffri broke free from the chair and went next door to call Deputies.

Detectives say because Jaffri was blindfolded, he did not get a look at the suspects.

Anyone with information about home invasion should call Crime Stoppers at (901) 528-CASH (2247) or Sheriff's detectives at (901) 545-5600.
