Pedestrian Killed In Brunswick

A Brunswick man died from injuries late last night after being struck by a vehicle as he walked near his home.

Sheriff's Office Traffic Investigators say Robert Jones, 56, who lived at 4582 Independent, was walking south on Brunswick Road near Independent Road about 6 p.m. when, without any indication, Jones stepped into the path of an SUV heading north driven by Eva Rousseau, of Arlington.

At the scene, Jones was alert and conscious while treated by paramedics. However, after being rushed to the Regional Medical Center, his condition worsened and he died last night about 10:30.

No charges will be filed against Ms. Rousseau. Witnesses told Deputies there was no way Ms. Rousseau could avoid hitting Jones who was wearing dark clothing. There are no street lights in the area where Jones was struck.
